Episode's Title : Babysitter
Storyline :

Toby, John, and Ruby are with Hoku, Blue, and Berry in Hoku's lab (inside the ship). Hoku is showing off one of his gadgets which can make large things small. He tries it to the older tortoise becoming a smaller tortoise. Everyone is amazed seeing Hoku's gadget work. Then, Blue and Berry start to interrupt Hoku because they want to use his gadget, too. Hoku gets upset and decides to put them in a baby fence (He presses a button then a cage-like prison surround Blue and Berry. And using his gem, he lifts Blue and Berry and put them inside the baby fence) to keep the two from troubling him. Blue and Berry look upset. After that, John gets hungry and ask for food to eat. Everyone agrees and Hoku lead them to the cafeteria. Hoku leaves his gadget on the table (there are other gadget as well on the table). A little while later Lily boards in looking for her friends and sees Blue and Berry behind the fence. Both of them decide to play innocent and cry crocodile tears asking to be let out. Fortunately, Lily falls for their fake tears and lets them out by pressing the button Hoku pressed earlier. Then, Blue and Berry quickly run without Lily's knowledge and take the gadget to use it to play mischief. Then, Lily continues to look for her friends. As Lily leaving the room, the rest of the characters return, and mayhem begins.

Ruby, Toby, John and Hoku were back. Blue and Berry sneaked from the sofa. Blue pointed his gadget to them (Toby, Ruby, John, & Hoku), then pushed the 'Toddler' button. As the flashed out, the older kids turned to toddlers. Blue & Berry jumped out of the sofa happily. They thought their plan had a big success. Until suddenly, the older kids started to cry together. When Lily returned, she is shocked to see Ruby, Toby, John and Hoku as babies. Blue and Berry are laughing and enjoying the sight, until the toddlers start crying. Lily demands from Blue and Berry to hand over the gadget. Blue and berry won't give her the gadget, then she cries loudly (which is her character trait anyway) and seeing that the twins hand over the gadget but when Lily presses the button nothing happens. She tries again but nothing happens. the toddlers are crying loudly now and the three try to find ways to pacify them.

Blue, Berry, and Lily immediately run toward the crying toddlers. They got panic. Lily carried Ruby on her hands, but Ruby is an angry baby so not easy to control. So she gives her a ball of yarn to play with. Blue carries Hoku on his back and made a funny face to Toby.

Berry gave John some apples to make him stop crying. Lily leads Blue and Berry to get the babies to stop crying. Lily gives a bone to Toby and he starts to calm down. Just when Lily, Blue and Berry get to take a break, Hoku now wants to play and gets his hands on a gadget and goes to baby ruby to show his new toy and presses it, making Ruby bloat up and float in the air and bounce off the walls…Lily and the twins are trying to catch Ruby. After that, Hoku took a ball and threw it randomly. When a ball is thrown, Toby would automatically run after it so can we have Toby run after the ball knocking things (Hoku's gadget, everything) down. Blue and Berry are trying to stop him. John suddenly pooped on his diaper (there's a smelly aroma coming out). Everyone freezes for a second with the smell of the poop. Ruby faints comically on the floor due to the strong smell. Lily tells Blue and Berry to clean up John but they refuse. So Lily has no option but to pick him up even the smell is too strong but she bravely do it anyway.

Meanwhile, Toby is bored with the ball game. He picks up a laser gun and shoot the laser gun on the roof and made some holes. Blue, Berry, and Lily were screaming in horror. They were really messed up. The three of them are trying to stop Toby but at the same time Hoku who also wants the laser gun. This creates a chaos among the them.

The toddlers could not stop messing up. Lily and the twins were exhausted. They leaned on each other and watching the toddlers in frustration. Lily started sobbing. John sees Blue's gadget. So he crawled and pressed it randomly and unlock the device (something like "access granted" sign or "verified" sign). Then suddenly the gadget flashed, and the toddlers were back to normal. They would see the mess around the house and an exhausted Lily and twins lying flat on the floor. Until finally they sniffed something smelly. It was John’s poop.
